Education

The playing and learning program schritt:weise actively supports families in the education of their children.

Support

As parents, you learn to support the development of your child in a playful way.

Jump start

You enable your child a healthy development and later a good start into kindergarden and school.

Program duration

The playing and learning program schritt:weise lasts for 18 months.

Taking part in the schritt:weise program

Participation

schritt:weise is aimed at parents of preschool-age children. The program consists of home visits and group meetings. Children can start at the age of 2–3 years.

Home visits

Parents and children are visited at home or at a suitable location by a trained home visitor weekly, then every second week

Learning by playing

The home visitor brings a new game idea, a picturebook, or a game that can be played together with children and parents.

Group meetings

Every second week, you will meet other parents with whom you can share your experiences and learn a lot about parenting and get to know offers for families.

Duration

The programme lasts 18 months. During the school holiday no home visits or group meetings will take place.

Language

The programme is offered in several languages.

Costs

The participation costs for the family is monthly CHF 10.–.
